

MOTORISTS MUST SOON HAVE TITLES

Cars Should Be Registered in State Offices By Saturday, November 24.

MANY HAVE APPLIED

Sale of Stolen Machines Will be Extremely Difficult Under the New System in This State.

Motor car owners of Gettysburg and Adams county who have put off making application for a state title for their automobiles have until Saturday, November 24, in which to have their machines properly registered with the Registrar of motor vehicles at Harrisburg. The majority of the car owners of this place are believed to have made application both for a state title and for their 1924 licenses. Others, however, have put off the matter and local notaries public look forward to a last minute rush of business.

Registrar Works Overtime

The office of the registrar, in the state highway department, is working at top speed filing the thousands of applications that are pouring in, and sending out the new certificates of title. These certificates are required under the act signed by Governor Pinchot on May 24, of this year, and are designed to make the sale of stolen cars an impossibility in Pennsylvania.

The registrar's office has worked out a system which reduces to a minimum the trouble for the motorist by combining the blanks which must be filled out for the title registration with the blank for application for 1924 license tags. All the questions ordinarily asked in the license application are embodied in the title blanks, and all it is necessary to do is to sign a blank line on the opposite side of the title registration application to apply for license.

The fee for the certificate of title is $2 in addition to the license fee, which varies with the car.

The application, whether for title or license, or both, must be sworn to before a notary public.

Registrar Eynon announces that after this year it will not be necessary to swear to license applications before a notary.

Can't Sell Without Title

"Hereafter," he explains, "registration of motor vehicles will be secondary to their titling. Each fall, after this, the motor vehicle department will mail to each registered owner an application blank completely filled in except for the name of the headlight device. The application (Continued on Third Page)

DAMAGE SUIT IS DRAWING TO CLOSE

Rebuttal Starts in Action Brought Against Greensburg Man.

The suit for damages brought by John H. Wolf, of Philadelphia, against C. A. Spencer, of Greensburg, this State, began drawing to a close this afternoon, when the defense rested at 1:45 o'clock. The suit is the outgrowth of a collision between the car driven by Wolf and that driven by Spencer's son, Harold, just west of McKnightstown at 9:45 o'clock, September 1, 1922.

After the defense rested rebuttal started, with S. C. Eshelman, of McKnightstown, as the first witness called by the plaintiff's attorneys, Charles Stahl and Charles Butt, to disprove testimony given by defense witnesses.

In all, nine witnesses were called by defense counsel, J. Donald Swope, Esq. They were C. A. Spencer, E. M. Hewitt, William H. Tipton, Mrs. Kline, Harold W. Spencer, John W. Brehm, Miss Marian Stewart, Arthur Hutchison and C. A. Spencer, who was recalled to the stand this afternoon, just before the defense rested. Miss Stewart was the third occupant of the Spencer car at the time of the accident.

The defense witnesses endeavored to prove that Wolf's car was being driven at a high rate of speed when the two machines collided. The defense also attempted to show that the Wolf car was driven into the path of the Spencer car, thereby causing the accident.

Two toy automobiles to show the positions of the two automobiles in the smashup were introduced by Attorney Swope when Harold Spencer took the stand, but Judge D. P. McPherson ruled them out and refused their use, when the plaintiff's attorneys objected.

WILL ADDRESS ADAMS FARMERS

Walton Peteet to Discuss Cooperative Marketing at Court-house Thursday.

Next Thursday evening, November 22, Adams county farmers will be addressed by Walton Peteet in the court-room at Gettysburg. The meeting is scheduled for 8:00 P. M. Mr. Peteet, Head of the Cooperative Marketing Department of the American Farm Bureau Federation, is regarded as one of the outstanding authorities on cooperative marketing in the United States. He has assisted in setting up farmers marketing organizations in twenty-five states.

This meeting is open to all persons interested in marketing or agricultural products. Orderly and systematic marketing of agricultural commodities is commanding the attention of farmers throughout the country. Adams county farmers are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing Mr. Peteet.

MANY AUTOISTS BUYING APPLES

Much Adams Fruit Being Disposed of Which Otherwise Would be Wasted.

Hundreds of bushels of prime apples are being disposed of this fall, directly from producer to consumer, in the apple belt of Adams county. Motorists passing over improved highways are able to buy choice fruit right at the gates of the orchards.

Scores of farmers and orchard owners along the concrete and macadam highways in Adams, York and Franklin counties have erected stands in front of their farms to display choice brands of apples for sale. Most of them are asking $1 a bushel and motorists are buying either in bushel lots or smaller quantities.

Along improved highways leading out of Gettysburg farmers are taking advantage of the opportunity of selling all kinds of farm produce which they can dispose of without the usual overhead expenses of rent, packing and transportation. Scores of persons owning motor cars have developed the habit of doing weekly marketing by driving into the rural sections.

Close to the town, farmers ask market prices for vegetables, fruit, scrap, country-cured ham, sausage and poultry, but further away from Gettysburg the farm markets are coaxing trade by selling at much lower than market prices. Farmers who do not live along the highways are paying their more fortunate neighbors whose farms abut on the improved roads a commission for disposing of their produce.

Apples are very plentiful this year, and officials of the department of agriculture estimate that thousands of bushels will be sold to motorists that otherwise would rot or be fed to hogs because of the inability of the producers to get them to city markets. Studies may be made by the department to aid the farmers in developing their new means of disposing of their products. Storage room for apples is at a premium in Adams county with the abundant crop this year and the roadside sales are proving a godsend to many of the growers, especially along the Lincoln Highway.

Stallsmith, Broadway, who with Howard Eyster, of York, spent the past three weeks hunting deer in the woods of Maine, returned home this afternoon with an eight-point buck and a doe, both of which attracted considerable attention in Center Square. Mr. Eyster shot two bucks. This was the third trip the two men made to Maine for deer.

TWO CANDIDATES FILE ACCOUNTS

Clarence C. Smith, Defeated For County Treasurer, Spent $648.95.

W. O. ANDERSON SPENT $85

Assessments Form Largest Item of Expense of Both; Candidates Slow Filing Expense Accounts This Year.

Although more than a week has passed since the recent general municipal election in Adams county, only two candidates for county offices had filed election expense returns up to this morning. One of the candidates filing was defeated for office, while the other was elected. Both filed this week.

Clarence C. Smith, Republican, Mt. Joy township, defeated by Harry J. Troxell, Democrat, Gettysburg, for county treasurer, was the first to file an itemized account of the expense incurred in conducting his unsuccessful campaign. According to the account, Smith spent a total of $648.95.

Almost two-thirds of this amount represents his assessment of $400. Other items were automobile hire and work, $85; advertising and cards, $41.70; and traveling expenses, $122.25.

W. O. Anderson, Republican, Lattimore township, elected minority member on the board of directors of the poor, spent $25 in securing his election, according to his expense account as filed Thursday with J. Robert Hartman, clerk of the courts.

The largest item of expense incurred by Anderson, who defeated E. H. Benner, Republican, for the minority place on the board of directors of the poor, was his assessment of $50. Other expenses consisted of $20 for advertising and cards and $15 for traveling expenses.

Neither Smith nor Anderson received contributions of any kind from outsiders, the entire expense of their campaigns having been borne by themselves, the expense accounts show.

Clerk of the Courts Hartman said it is not unusual for candidates in general elections to put off filing their expense accounts until near the end of the thirty-day period from the date of the election allowed for that purpose. He added, however, that this year the candidates were unusually tardy in filing their expenditures.

SCHOOLS RECALL LINCOLN SPEECH

Sixtieth Anniversary of Memorable Address Here Is Observed.

The sixtieth anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Armistice Day and Educational Week were observed by the public schools today with appropriate exercises. The anniversary of Lincoln's address falls on Monday and Educational Week will be observed throughout the nation next week, but programs were held today as the institute vacation is in effect next week.

At the High School exercises, Miss Dorothy Rummel, president of the Girls' Council, presided. Patriotic songs, a saxophone solo by Charles Beales; recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Richard Downie, president of the Senior class, and an address by Professor Jackson, of the college faculty, featured the program.

At the Meade School, Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, Dr. Frank Kramer and Professor Jackson were the speakers. In the fifth and sixth grade exercises, in charge of Miss Annie Major, Ivan Kitzmiller delivered Lincoln's address.

Rev. Earl Bowman spoke to the students of the High Street building. The story of the dedication of the National Cemetery, written by Dr. J. A. Clutz, was read. Appropriate exercises were held at the Franklin Street school.

MAIL CARRIERS TO COUNT PIGS

They Have Been Asked to Take Census Of Swine In Adams County.

"Pigs is pigs," but it will be up to the rural mail carriers to find out just how many there are within Adams county's borders.

In addition to their regular duties which range from weighing babies to administering first aid, rural mail carriers have been given the job of counting the pigs in the United States again next year.

The carriers have counted before and they did such a good job and the Department of Agriculture found the figures so valuable that Postmaster-General New has ordered another census of the whole swine population to show how many pigs will be ready for the market next spring and summer.

JURY GIVES GIRL $500 HEART BALM IN PROMISE SUIT

Miss Hilda Tipton Alleges William D. Wachter Refused To Marry Her After Date For Wedding Was Set; Had Trousseau Prepared.

By agreement of counsel, a jury at noon today was instructed by President Judge Donald P. McPherson to return a verdict of $500 and costs of the prosecution in favor of Miss Hilda Tipton, East Middle street, against William D. Wachter, Steinwehr avenue, for alleged breach of promise. Full vindication of Miss Tipton is secured by the verdict, her counsel, William Hersh, Esq., avers.

According to the statement of claim of Miss Tipton, she and Wachter became acquainted in 1920 and after a period of courtship they became engaged in December, 1922. At that time, Wachter presented Miss Tipton with a wrist watch as an engagement present, which, it is declared, she preferred to an engagement ring.

On January 21, this year, Miss Tipton and Wachter obtained the promise of the former's parents to their marriage and the date of the ceremony was set for June 1, 1923, the plaintiff's statement alleges. They were to have been married in the United Brethren church.

In anticipation of the wedding, Miss Tipton alleges that she spent considerable money in preparation of her trousseau and had gathered together an amount of household goods with which to go to housekeeping afterward.

She further alleges in her bill of complaint that for some inexplicable reason, Wachter "wilfully, wrongfully failed, neglected and refused" to marry her, which brought about the institution of the suit of breach of promise. Miss Tipton contends that it was not fault of hers Wachter discontinued the engagement, and that she is unable to account for his attitude following their engagement.

Miss Tipton, with her witnesses, was in court this week, ready to present her side of the case to the court and to a jury. She was ready to exhibit her trousseau and other articles she had prepared for the wedding and for going to housekeeping afterward.

George J. Benner, Esq., who represented Wachter, and Mr. Hersh, who represented the plaintiff, however, came to an agreement, suitable to both parties, and the case was not called.

PROPERTIES CHANGE HANDS

Edward Wenschhof, advertising compositor of The Times, has sold his property on Steinwehr avenue to Charles Culp. The terms of the sale are private. Oliver G. MacPherson has purchased a modernized two-story dwelling on West Middle street. Several other properties are expected to change hands within ten days, a general demand for houses being shown by those who refuse to build at present high prices. The large new home of Fred G. McCammon, west of Gettysburg, has been placed under roof and will be ready for occupancy before the end of the present year, it is expected.

QUASH RUM CASE; EVIDENCE VAGUE

Seventy-Six Cases of "Silver Top" Beverage to be Returned to Owners.

RELEASE HARRISBURGERS

Some of Samples Fail to Show More Than Amount of Alcohol Permitted; District Attorney Asks Dismissal.

On motion of District Attorney Raymond F. Topper for a nolle prosequi, President Judge Donald P. McPherson, in court Thursday afternoon, directed that the charges of the illegal possession, transportation and sale of intoxicating liquor against Lewis Karmatz, H. E. Corbin and John Sheldon, all of Harrisburg, be dropped and that the truck and its contents seized by the State police be released from the custody of the sheriff of Adams county and turned back to the owners.

The Harrisburg men were arrested July 12, by State police, when their truck, containing 76 cases of beverage labeled "Silver Top," in Center Square here, aroused suspicions. Charges of violation of the State prohibition enforcement law were laid against Karmatz, Corbin and Sheldon, and at a preliminary hearing they were released on bail to await court action.

In the petition for a nolle prosequi, District Attorney Topper declares samples of the beverage on the truck were submitted to a chemist for analysis and that the first test revealed the presence of ethyl alcohol slightly in excess of one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume. Subsequent tests of samples of the beverage were made, all of which showed less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume, the prosecuting attorney's petition says.

By reason of the small percentage in excess of one-half of one per cent of alcohol as shown by the first analysis and the report of the chemist as to the possibility of error in dealing with low percentage of alcohol by volume, and the failure of the chemists to find the presence of alcohol in excess of one-half of one per cent in a number of other samples subsequently submitted for analysis, the District Attorney, in his petition, says he deems it inadvisable to continue the charges against the three men, because of the "doubtful character of the case."

The State's attorney asks the court to order the release of the truck at the expense of the defendants and under the supervision of the State police and to direct that no part of the consignment of the beverage be sold or disposed of in any way in Adams county. The bond given by the defendants for the release of the truck was also ordered cancelled.

William Hersh, Esq., represented the Harrisburgers.

COLLEGE SQUAD READY FOR GAME

Coach Wood's Brother, a Lehigh Player, Helps Whip Team Into Shape.

Coach W. W. Wood had the assistance of his brother, Bob Wood, former Lehigh player, who is his guest, for last night's practice of the Gettysburg football squad. As long as there was daylight the team worked to break up a varied aerial attack devised by Assistant Coach Bream for the second string men and believed to duplicate in part at least the offensive which Lebanon Valley will bring into play on Saturday when the two eleven meet at Hanover.

After darkness had fallen the big lights were turned on, the squad was given an hour's drill in breaking up assaults on the line. Coach Wood seemed well pleased with the results of the day's work.

A change in the lineup for Saturday's game provides that Mordan, plunging halfback, shall stay out and that Singley shall go to the backfield from left end. He was tried there with great success last night and seems well adapted to his new post. Sykes has replaced him at end and most of the forward passes last night were directed at his wing.

NEW AUTOS IN DEMAND

Renewed buying of automobiles has been reported by practically all dealers in Gettysburg, following the harvesting of the fruit crop and the placing on the market of the 1924 models.

Dealers generally report that the outlook for the last of this year and early spring has never been better and it is expected that the volume of trade will much exceed that of former seasons.

MILK MEETINGS ARE SCHEDULED

One at Littlestown and Another at Bonneauville Next Week. Farm Agent Announces.

The Adams County Farm Bureau and the Inter-State Milk Producers Association will hold two meetings which should interest all dairymen in the county, it is announced by R. E. Underwood, County Farm Agent. The one is to be held in the High School building at Littlestown, Wednesday evening, November 21, at 8 o'clock, and the other to be held in the Catholic Hall at Bonneauville, Thursday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock.

E. B. Pitts, head of the dairy extension work at the college, will address both meetings. The Inter-State Milk Producers Association will also have a speaker and field man who will urge all those who are not members of the local branches to sign up with the Association, County Agent Underwood says. This will give the locals an opportunity of sending a delegate to the annual meeting of the Association. A large turnout is expected.

BANK DEPOSITS HERE INCREASE

Healthy Condition of County's Financial Institutions Reflected.

The five state banks and two trust companies in Adams county have a total number of depositors of 13,507, which shows a healthy growth over last year. The nine national banks had a corresponding increase in number of depositors, while deposits in all also increased considerably, a canvass shows.

In the reports of the trust companies and state banks of York and Adams counties, compiled by the state commissioner of banking at the close of business, September 29, of this year, and announced yesterday, a substantial growth in the wealth of their residents, as the result of thrift, is noted.

York county has 14 state banks and 33,633 depositors, and five trust companies with 23,536 depositors. Adams county has five state banks with 8,662 depositors and two trust companies with 4,945 depositors. Time certificates of deposit of the two classes of institutions in the two counties constitute a major portion of the time deposits. This total is in excess of $13,000,000. Approximately $16,700,000 are on time deposits in trust companies and state banks of the two counties, with Adams county's total approximately $4,000,000.

York county's banks and trust companies have a capital stock amounting to $1,721,500, while the capital stock of Adams county institutions is shown as $409,000. The two trust companies in Adams have undivided profits of $51,838.77. Moneys of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in custody of York county's institutions on the date the report was compiled are given at $115,000, as compared with $20,000 for Adams county.

STATE TAKES DISEASED CATTLE OF ADAMS FARM

Ten head of Holstein cattle from the H. D. Sheppard farm, along the Littlestown highway, were shipped to a State reduction plant near Lancaster last week, they having been found affected with tuberculosis.

These cattle had been under state inspection and observation for several weeks and ten out of a herd of twenty-four were found to be affected by the disease.

The cattle were shipped to Lancaster over the Pennsylvania Railroad under state directions. A close watch over the remaining cattle of the herd will be kept, although at present they are free from the disease.

LYLOYD GEORGE AND BALDWIN DEBATE

House of Commons Rejects Labor Party's Motion of Censure.

London, Nov. 16.—The House of Commons last night, after a debate in which the prime minister and Mr. Lloyd George took part and much heckling and decisive remarks were indulged in, rejected the Labor motion of censure introduced by J. Ramsay MacDonald, by a vote of 285 to 190 amid ministerial cheers.

The government thus maintained its parliamentary majority, and cleared for formal dissolution to-day, when the struggle, which already bears evidence of being of an exceptionally determined character, will be transferred from the parliament to the constituencies. Ministers and members alike will distribute themselves all over the country, where a great oratorical campaign is already in full swing.

Premier Baldwin told the House of Commons something about his tariff plans and the reasons for precipitating a general election. He was specific regarding only what he proposes to exclude from taxation, that is, wheat, flour and meat, including mutton and bacon, and cheese, butter and eggs.

"Free Hand" Elsewhere

For everything else the prime minister reserves "a perfectly free hand" for a later decision. On what articles he proposes to raise the tariffs he awaits the advice of a committee appointed to consider the subject.

His plea of necessity for protection was based largely on the argument that in the matter of tariffs every nation's hand is against Great Britain. All other governments, especially the United States, Italy and Spain, had greatly increased tariffs since the war.

YORK COUNTY MAN SPANKS HIS WIFE

Alderman, After Hearing of Scrap, Advises Couple to Adjust Differences.

York, Nov. 16.—Differences bringing on strife in the marital experiences of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Sprengle, near Red Lion, were aired last evening before Alderman Noah C. May, this city, when the husband appeared to answer to charges of assault and battery, threatening to kill, surety of the peace, desertion and non-support. Following the hearing the alderman, exhibiting a tendency of the wisdom of Solomon, held the cases under advisement until November 24, next, at 1 o'clock, giving the husband and wife an opportunity to get together on some sort of agreement whereby their troubles will possibly be adjusted without a hearing in court.

Sprengle, on the witness stand in his own behalf, admitted that in the heat of an argument with his wife he had thrown her to the floor and administered a spanking. He denied having threatened to kill her. The wife, while telling her story, Thursday evening, also stated that her husband had not chased her with a butcher knife from their home to Red Lion, where she took refuge in the residence of a neighbor until her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Olp, Gay street, Red Lion, had returned home.

He Expresses Opposition to League and All its Parts and Demands Open Primaries.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, announced last night his candidacy for the Republican nomination for President, declaring that "the ensuing contest will determine whether the Republican party shall be the permanent instrument of reaction or whether it shall respond to present-day conditions and aspirations."

In tossing his hat into the Presidential ring Senator Johnson declared for direct Presidential preference primaries in all the States, said the need today for a "revitalized Republican party" which should be an instrument "neither of static reaction nor destructive radicalism" and expressed opposition to the League of Nations "and all its subsidiaries."

McAdoo Is Considering

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 16.—Commenting on a statement made in Chicago Thursday by David L. Rockwell, of Ravenna, Ohio, that friends of William G. McAdoo, intend to nominate him as a Democratic candidate for the presidency, Mr. McAdoo said here Thursday that "Mr. Rockwell has stated the situation accurately."

"If I have any further comment to make it will come later," the former secretary of the treasury, here for a brief stop en route to his home in Los Angeles, declared. He talked privately for about fifteen minutes with local Democrats at the station, during which he is understood to have told them prospects for national success for the party never looked brighter than now.

Questioned by newspaper men what he thought of President Coolidge's position, he asked: "Do we know just what that is?"

Mr. McAdoo expected to stop at Grand Island, Nebraska, to see Governor Charles W. Bryan.

CUT TAX AT ONCE, BORAH'S DEMAND

Confident American People Are Too Heavily Burdened.

Washington, Nov. 16.—In a statement wherein he pictured the growing impatience of the taxpayer, whom he described as about to turn upon his torturer, Senator William E. Borah, Republican, Idaho, said it was the plain, immediate and imperative duty of Congress to relieve the taxpayers of the country of part of the burdens they are carrying.

Approving in general the tax-reduction program of Secretary Mellon, although admitting details must be worked out, Senator Borah said Congress has no excuse for further postponing action and its members will face enraged constituencies next year if they fail.

"Most Heavily Taxed People"

Mr. Borah said he was confident investigation would reveal that the people of the United States "are the most heavily taxed people on the globe." He added that "our continued waste and profligacy at the capital will discourage economy throughout the States."

Senator Borah said the inquiry into the waste at the Veterans' Bureau was uncovering "a shameful saturation of incompetency, waste and graft," and that resultant bitterness was creeping upon the taxpayers who are paying the bills.

ASK ENFORCEMENT FREE OF POLITICS

Head of Women Voters in State Decries Needless Legislation.

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—Unwillingness of the body politic to march up and look a fact in the face before being swept off its feet by a sentimental appeal or the electioneering of politicians was denounced Thursday by Mrs. John O. Miller, president of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters, before the annual convention of that body in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel.

Mrs. Miller spoke at the afternoon session. In the morning session, the convention came out for prohibition enforcement. The resolution passed "formally records the allegiance of the league to the constitution and the law, and registers its hope that public opinion will crystallize in such definite form that law enforcement may not be entangled in the meshes of politics."

The reluctance of the people to face facts and a general mental indolence has resulted, Mrs. Miller said, in the passage of a lot of unnecessary and even pernicious legislation.

Three of the four amendments to the constitution passed by the last legislature "got through," Mrs. Miller asserted, because they were not discussed intelligently.

The amendment that gives free transportation to clergymen was dubbed "pernicious" by the league leaders. "Why should you and I," she asked, "be forced to pay the traveling expenses of preachers because their congregations are too niggardly to supply the money?"

EDUCATION WEEK OPENS ON SUNDAY

State Superintendent Becht Urges Observance of Daily Program.

OUTLINES HIS PLAN

Movement is Sponsored by the American Legion, With Educational Bodies Cooperating.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 16.—Pennsylvania communities and especially the schools will be asked to observe American Education week, November 18 to 24, which is being sponsored by the American Legion, Dr. J. George Becht, superintendent of public instruction, has announced. Co-operating with the legion are the National Education Association, the United States bureau of education, the Pennsylvania State Education Association and the state department of public instruction.

"To advance the cause of education and elevate our citizenship" are given as the objects of the movement. For the week's observance the following calendar has been prepared: Sunday, God and County day; Monday, Citizen-Constitution day; Tuesday, Patriotism day; Wednesday, Home and School day; Thursday, Adult Education day; Friday, Conservation day, and Saturday, Community and Health day.

Doctor Becht said that Citizenship-Constitution day was set aside because of the recent legislative act which adds to the curriculum of all public and private schools the study of the constitution to begin not later than at the eighth grade and continue through the high school.

On Thursday—Adult Education day—Pennsylvanians are asked to remember the 400,000 adults in the state who cannot read or write the language. "These people have, for the most part, come here from foreign lands; they have performed hard physical labor and have contributed to the development of the commonwealth," Doctor Becht said. Asserting that "it is our duty to help them acquire the means by which they can be molded into helpful, loyal, intelligent American citizens," Doctor Becht declared the schools and employers of labor can do much to bring this about.

For conservation day, Friday, the attention of Pennsylvania has been directed to the conserving of farm life, forests, streams, water power, roads, minerals and other resources and "above all the interests of all children, the most precious heritage of the state." The department of forests and waters also has prepared a number of valuable suggestions for this day.

For Saturday—Community and Health day—a parade of the teachers, school children and American Legion is suggested. "No finer civic lesson could be presented to the people than to see the school population and teaching force together," it is declared in a pamphlet issued by the department of public instruction. "It would be a living example of the American Legion's contention that 'education is an investment and not an expense, without which posterity is doomed to chaos.'"

LIFER TAKES "FLYER" IN BOSTON STOCK MARKET

Jesse Pomeroy Nets $50 or $60 on Deals Made Through Prison Officials.

Boston, Nov. 16.—Jesse Pomeroy, life prisoner of the Charlestown State Prison, who has served nearly half a century in that institution, has been dipping into the stock market, it was learned today, and the return of his investment, amounting to $50 or $60, has been tucked away in the prison safe for his convenience.

"Pomeroy bought some Liberty bonds during the war, about $300 worth," said William Hendry, the warden, "and decided to cash them and buy some stock. We took care of the transaction for him and bought some shares." The warden said that no other prisoners had been allowed to take "flyers" in State street.

Pomeroy was convicted at the age of 15 of murder and his death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment in 1876. He has been in the Charlestown prison ever since.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 16.—Since the department of highways began its intensive road construction program, early in 1919, 2164 miles of modern-type pavement have been constructed in Pennsylvania, department officials said Thursday. On November 8, the department had constructed 316 miles of durable highways during the present season.

It also was announced that the department had rejected all bids for the construction of a highway through Eberburg borough, in Clarion county.

cant has only to sign the application and return with the proper remittance to get his license for the next year."

The title application blanks require information as to engine and manufacturers' numbers, names of accessories and other features to make identification easy.

After November 24, when the law becomes effective, no car can be sold without a registered title, and the new owner must immediately register his ownership. All owners at present must register, regardless of how long they have had their cars. No licenses for 1924 will be issued until the title is registered.

The penalty for owning or operating a car after November 24 without certificate of title is $50 to $100 fine. The state motor patrol will enforce the new regulation.

Certificates of title are good for the life of the car, so long as it remains in the same ownership. It need not be renewed.

Mr. Eynon warns: "Application for certificates of title shows the kind of lien, the date, the amount and in whose favor it is drawn. When the certificate of title is issued the amount of encumbrance, as well as in whose favor it is drawn, is noted. Any person purchasing or acquiring a motor vehicle with a lien of encumbrance does so at his own risk, and should examine the title that is being assigned to him before accepting the vehicle. The registrar earnestly advises all purchasers to examine the title and exercise the same caution in acquiring their car as they do when they procure a piece of property."

THREE MEN AND A MAID

He followed Jane in a docile manner out through the front door, and they made their way to the garage at the back of the house, both silent. The only difference between their respective silences was that Billie's was thoughtful, while Bream's was just the silence of a man who has unhitched his brain and is getting along as well as he can without it.

In the hall they had left, Jane Hubbard once more took command of affairs.

"Well, that's something done," she said, scratching Smith's broad back with the muzzle of her weapon. "Something accomplished, something done, has earned a night's repose. Not that we're going to get it yet. I think those fellows are hiding somewhere, and we ought to search the house and run them out. It's a pity, Smithy, but you're about as much practical use in a situation like this as a cold in the head. You're a good cake-hound, but as a watch-dog you don't finish in the first ten."

The cake-hound, charmed at the compliment, frisked about her feet like a young elephant.

"The first thing to do," continued Jane, "is to go through the ground-floor rooms. . . . She paused to strike a match against the suit of armor nearest to her, a proceeding which elicited a sharp cry of protest from Mrs. Hignett, and lit a cigarette. "I'll go first, as I've got a gun. . . . She blew a cloud of smoke. "I shall want somebody with me to carry a light, and. . . .

"Tchou!"

"What?" said Jane.

"I didn't speak," said Mr. Mortimer. "Who am I to speak?" he went on bitterly. "Who am I that it should be supposed that I have anything sensible to suggest?"

"Somebody spoke," said Jane. "I. . . .

"Achoo!"

"Do you feel a draught, Mr. Bennett?" cried Jane sharply, wheeling round on him.

"There is a draught," began Mr. Bennett.

"Well, finish sneezing and I'll go on."

"I didn't sneeze!"

"Somebody sneezed."

"It seemed to come from just behind you," said Mrs. Hignett nervously.

"It couldn't have come from just behind me," said Jane, "because there isn't anything behind me from which it could have. . . . She stopped suddenly, in her eyes the light of understanding, on her face the set expression which was wont to come to it on the eve of action. "Oh!" she said in a different voice, a voice which was cold and tense and sinister. "Oh, I see!" She raised her gun, and placed a threatening finger on the trigger.

"It's my house," said Mr. Bennett, "for the summer, Henry Mortimer's and mine. Isn't that right, Henry?"

"Dead right," said Mr. Mortimer.

"There!" said Mr. Bennett. "You hear? And when Henry Mortimer says a thing, it's so. There's nobody's word I'd take before Henry Mortimer's."

"When Rufus Bennett makes an assertion," said Mr. Mortimer, highly flattered by these kind words, "you can bank on it. Rufus Bennett's word is his bond. Rufus Bennett is a white man!"

The two old friends clasped hands with a good deal of feeling.

"I am not disputing Mr. Bennett's claim to belong to the Caucasian race," said Mrs. Hignett. "I merely maintain that this house is. . . .

"Yes, yes, yes, yes!" interrupted Jane. "You can thrash all that out some other time. The point is, if this fellow is your nephew, I don't see what we can do. We'll have to let him go."

"I came to this house," said Sam, raising his vizor to facilitate speech, "to make a special call. . . .

AMERICA'S FOREMOST COUGH REMEDY

San-Tox

PINE BALSAM
With Menthol and Eucalyptus

GREAT, fragrant forests of pine trees are known to have a healthful effect on those who are able to be near them. Their very odor is healing and soothing. And now, the syrup obtained from the bark of the white pine tree has been combined with other strengthening ingredients, into an effective cough remedy called San-Tox Pine Balsam.

What it Contains, and Why

Besides the Pine Syrup which is contained in San-Tox Pine Balsam, there is Wild Cherry Bark, for its value in treating all bronchial difficulties, and for its well-known strengthening effect upon the stomach.

Blood Root, too, for its value as an expectorant; Menthol, soothing and cooling in inflamed conditions of the mucous membranes; Eucalyptus for its stimulating expectorant powers, and its antiseptic qualities; Glycerine and Chloroform, for their beneficial effect in properly regulated doses; and Ammonium Chloride for its stimulating effect on the mucous membrane of the lungs. Properly combined, these ingredients form an unequalled cough remedy.

San-Tox Laxative Cold Tablets

ONE of the most important steps in properly treating a cold is to take a good laxative immediately. We recommend San-Tox Laxative Cold Tablets. They will move the bowels freely, will tend to allay the fever, stimulate the action of the perspiratory glands, and relieve head-

No Opiates or Narcotics

No fear of disagreeable or unpleasant effects need be entertained when using San-Tox Pine Balsam. Not one particle of any opiate or narcotic enters into its manufacture. There are no ill effects upon the digestive organs. It is agreeable to the taste and may be used freely by adults and children. San-Tox Pine Balsam is prepared by skilled pharmacists in a clean and sanitary laboratory where the ever-present watchword is "San-Tox for Purity."

Like all other San-Tox preparations, "Pine Balsam" is sold only at this, the San-Tox Drug Store. San-Tox preparations are worthy of your confidence. Look for the famous Nurse Trade Mark on each package.

ache as well as muscle pains which frequently accompany a bad cold.

If taken in time, the cold will be held in check so effectively that, with the assistance thus given, nature will be able quickly to restore you to health and strength.

LLOYD GEORGE AND IRELAND

It was Lloyd George who solved the insoluble, who found the formula for answering the Irish Question, who did what British statesmen for seven hundred years had failed to do. It was Lloyd George more than any Briton who put Ireland on the map as an autonomous people, an equal partner in the British commonwealth of nations, a member of the league of nations. It was Lloyd George who succeeded where Gladstone and Disraeli and Asquith and all the others failed. It was Lloyd George who thus removed the one great cause of friction among English-speaking nations, to the benefit of them all. It was Lloyd George who stopped the continuous flow of money from Irish sympathizers in the United States to Erin, by making it no longer necessary.

There are now comparatively few Irish republicans in this country. Most men of Irish birth here believe that the Irish Free state solves the problem of seven centuries in the best practicable way.

Mr. Lloyd George may or may not be called upon again to take the helm of state in London. But whatever his future, he will henceforth be looked upon by most Americans as a real and friendly personality. We have shaken his hand, heard his voice, know him and like him.

AND NOW COMES DR. NANSEN

One distinguished visitor is followed by another. As Lloyd George left, Nansen arrived. Nansen reminds one of the story of the lady who told Arnold Bennett that after reading his advice on concentration she had been doing it. "And on what have you been concentrating, madam?" asked Bennett. "Oh, on ever so many things," the lady replied.

Nansen shows what can be done in an age which worships specialization by winning a worldwide reputation as an Arctic explorer, a statesman, an author, a lecturer, a relief worker, and a winner of the Nobel peace prize. He must require a special secretary to keep him informed of which role he is appearing in at the moment. He explores the Arctic and comes to New York on the invitation of the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches. He does what he can to straighten out the European tangle, and is met at the pier by representatives of the American Scandinavian foundation. He writes a scientific work and becomes the guest of the Foreign policy association.

A man who has such a variety of achievements to his credit as Nansen is sure of a warm welcome in a country which admires versatility, remarks the New York Post. People will not know which to praise more—the daring and the love of science which took him into the perils of the Arctic or the sympathy which has taken him into the famine-stricken districts of Europe and the ability with which he has ministered to the relief of the suffering. It is given to few men to perform two such feats. If there are scientists whose intellectual labors have dulled their sensibilities, they may see in Nansen a scientist who is first of all a man. Americans will greet him for what he is, for what he has done, and for what he hopes to do.

SPANGLER LOST TO YORK HIGH

Main Stay of Backfield is Not Expected to be in Line-Up Against Gettysburg.

Additional indication that Charlie Spangler, the veteran York High School football halfback and brilliant broken field runner, mainstay in the kicking department of the team, who sustained a severe injury to his ankle in the crucial Gettysburg College reserve-York High School game last Saturday, will be lost to Captain Brillhard and the team Saturday against the undefeated Gettysburg High School eleven is given by the York Gazette and Daily in its current issue.

"Charlie's loss will be felt," says the York newspaper, "but Coach Weimer is well prepared for the emergency with two clever little boys in 'Red' Stewart and 'Whitie' Allabach ready to alternate in Spangler's position, while Spangler's ability as a punter may mean a lot to the team without his service. It is hoped that his under-studies can produce enough between them to keep the team work intact and get the Orange and Blue back on their winning stride."

"Gettysburg High has not been defeated this season and have rolled up a total score of 214 points against 9 for their opponents in eight games.

TAKING THE BABY'S PART

Perhaps I'm wrong—so oft it is man—
But for a moment let's suppose Someone took off your shoes and hose
Just when the evening fun began,
And very positively said:
"Now, little one, it's time for bed,"
Would you go smilingly from us,
Or, like the baby, make a fuss?

Suppose you did not wish to sleep,
Were not yet wearied of the day
But had no power your wish to say,
Would you not loudly start to weep
And twist and squirm to overthrow
The will of those who bade you go?
How would you like it to be rocked
Till sleep at last your eyelids locked?

Their players had the advantage of seeing Coach Weimer's boys in action against the strong and mighty Gettysburg Scrubs last Saturday and have learned a great deal about their style of play, but have a lot of surprises coming to them before the game is over this week. Coach Weimer was careful enough to keep some of his most important plays under cover for this battle and is out to stop the Battlefield town team.

Never start an argument with a man bigger than you unless you like being called a liar.

Everywhere you see suggestions for beautifying the home. Our suggestion is to lower the rent.

Let us suppose some giants,
As large to you as you appear
Unto the baby crying here,
Hold you in arms of tenderness,
But forceful arms, against your will,
And whispered often: "Now keep still!"
Would you believe the world all wrong,
Or would you listen to her song?

Would lullabies, however sweet,
Steal from your mind its utmost thought,
That sleep was something to be fought
With flying hands and kicking feet?
Would you not try, beyond a doubt,
To wear the lady's patience out?
Yet every night our roguish miss
Is made to go to sleep like this.

Keeps Upkeep Down

Why be Feeble?

ADVANCING years should not mean the approach of a period of dependency—of crutches and canes—of worry, care and fatigue! Be prepared to grapple with the henchmen of Old Age—with rheumatism—with undermined health—with feebleness. The system that is free from impurities—through which rich red blood tingles need not worry about advancing years. Enlist the aid of S. S. S.—the builder of red blood cells—to fight off the infirmities of Old Age.

With the aid of S. S. S. when you reach this stage of life the nerve power that has been built up by ever increasing blood cells—the vim and vigor of youth that you possess will enable you to enjoy the advantages of passing years, while others less fortunate are feeble and dependent.

S. S. S. for nearly a century has been serving as a valuable and time honored assistant in the fight for hale and hearty Old Age. It is made only of pure vegetable ingredients and is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is the more economical.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor S. K. Johnson, 642 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him to-day for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Ask Grandma About Vegetable Tea For Constipation

Liver and Bowel remedies come and go, but Dr. Carter's K. and B. Tea, which your grandmother knew all about, is now more popular than ever. Many families have used this tea for years, brewing it at home, and find it the best and least expensive remedy they can get.

Your pharmacist will sell you a 30-cent package, which will last a long time.

It's a splendid drink for constipation, acts surely and gently, and for a sluggish liver, sick headache, sallow skin and dizziness, many thousands of women use it. Speedy and blissful relief is guaranteed to all who drink Dr. Carter's K. and B. Tea, and don't forget that it's simply fine for children.—adv.

Now is the time to fight constipation with Bran—Start to-day!

Don't give the diseases that follow in the track of constipation a chance to lodge in your system! Get after constipation with nature's greatest helper—BRAN, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled—because it is ALL BRAN and because it will give you permanent relief from constipation! It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that.

Bran's action is wonderful. It sweeps and cleanses and purifies. It knocks out the dangerous toxic poisons and frees the system from pollution! Try Kellogg's Bran for a week. Eat it regularly—two tablespoonfuls each day; as much each meal in chronic cases. You will be astounded at the difference in your feelings!

Kellogg's Bran should not be confused with common bran which is unpalatable and difficult to eat. Kellogg's is cooked and all ready to serve and really delicious. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook or mix it with hot cereal. In the latter cases add two tablespoonfuls for each person.

Do you realize what Kellogg's Bran can do for you and for your family; do you realize that it will keep sickness away; that it will put every one on a new health footing; that it will free you all from pills and cathartics?

Kellogg's Bran is particularly delightful made in raisin bread, in macaroons, popovers, muffins, etc. Recipes are printed on each package!

You will say that Kellogg's Bran is a blessing to humanity.

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran!

A DELIGHTFUL ROW

"My wife had suffered from stomach and liver trouble for many years and had taken medicine enough to sink a ship; so when I brought home a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, on the advice of my employer, she refused to take it. Her liver trouble hadn't helped her disposition any. We had a big row, but she took it the next week. Her ailments have all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded, at Peoples Drug Store, and druggists everywhere.—adv.

SAYS—NOW STIFF JOINTS MUST GO!

New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases.

Yes; it's true—the world progresses. All you have to do nowadays to limber up that stiff, rusty knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle working substance from a tube. Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy. Then read the evening newspapers and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to leap when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint Ease: They call this wonder working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling, Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, stainless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale is immense.

Peoples Drug Store and Stallsmith's Newsstand Drug Store has a big supply of it and druggists everywhere report a big demand.—adv.

HANOVER HIGH CLEARED $200 ON G. H. S. CONTEST

In its first football game in years, the game against the Gettysburg High school reserves, Monday of this week, Hanover High school cleared $200 over and above all expenses, according to a statement given the press by Coach E. A. Roberts, of the high school faculty. More than 1,000 persons witnessed the game, of which more than 500 were paid admissions.

Football was started at Hanover high several times in the past, it is stated, but failed. Now, however, Coach Roberts predicts, it has become a regular part of athletics at the school. On November 24, Hanover High soccer team will play the Harrisburg Academy team and the football team will meet the Blue Ridge Preps. The day is to be known as Athletic Rally day in Hanover.

It is logical that we should ask the prospective buyer to gauge the worth of the Studebaker Special-Six by the measure of its sales success.

Why mention the distinctive motor or any other feature of this unusual car when the American public itself has established the greatest of all selling arguments in its favor by buying it?

Automobile license figures for every state in the Union continue to tell their own uncolored stories of Studebaker popularity.

How Often Haven't You Heard One Say:

Cook's is the Store for Hosiery and Underwear

This opinion is prompted by the fact that this store is always prepared with extensive assortments of the better kinds of hosiery and underwear. And assortments for winter are now at their height.

Here Are Such Famously Good Hose as Phoenix and Vanity Fair and Other Dependable Makes

We make it a point to have at all times the most complete selections of hosiery—complete size range and complete in color-range. Especially do we aim to have those shades you find are difficult to obtain.

The prices are very moderate, particularly when the higher qualities are taken into consideration. Lisle hose range in price from 25c to $1—Silk hose, plain or fancy and wool hose plain or fancy $1 to $2.25.

New Underwear For Winter Wear

You are practically certain to find your favorite make of underwear at Cook's for here are such well known kinds as, Vanity Fair, Dove, etc. Complete range of sizes and patterns in every wanted under garment.
